I was placed in charge of the Education Branch of the Secretariat from about the 25th December 1923 to the 14th Feb 1924 during the absence on leave of the Asst Secy 2 in the Ed'n Branch viz. Appointments &c

As the work of the Etc Branch which included that of the Central Recruiting Board was used to take up most of my time during Office hours I had to work overtime every day attending office even on Sundays and holidays

And it was with considerable difficulty and strain I could not through the work of the two branches

I request, in these circumstances, that Govt. may be pleased to sanction some ex gratia allowance. I am at least Rs 50/- per month during the period I attended to the work of two branches under S 98 (A), M. S. R

I understand that similar allowances have been sanctioned by Govt. in the past.

In the month of April last I put in an application for addl duty allowance for having been in charge of the Edn Branch from about the 24th Dec 1923 to 15th inst. No orders have yet been communicated to me. I was again in charge of the Registrar's duties from the 7th June 1924 to the 30th June. I hear that orders were passed recently in a similar case regarding addl duty allowance. I request that my case may kindly be passed in accordance with those orders.
